Lecture Outline for Part III*

Ruth Dunn

This work is produced by The Connexions Project and licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution License †

Abstract

Minority Studies: A Brief Sociological Text is a very, very brief textbook suitable for use as a supplemental or stand-alone text in a college-level minority studies Sociology course. Any instructor who would choose to use this as a stand-alone textbook would need to supply a large amount of statistical data and other pertinent and extraneous Sociological material in order to "flesh-out" fully this course. Each module/unit of Minority Studies: A Brief Sociological Text contains the text, course objectives, a study guide, key terms and concepts, a lecture outline, assignments, and a reading list.

1 Suggested Lecture Material for Part III—Sex, Gender, and Sexual Orientation

- Identify and differentiate among sex, gender, and sexual orientation.
  - Sex
    - Males
    - Females
  - Gender
    - Roles
    - Sex-appropriate behavior
    - The Looking Glass Self
    - The Self-Fulfilling Prophecy
  - Sexual Orientation-GLBT
    - Straight Males
    - Straight Females
    - Gay (Males)
    - Lesbian (Females)
    - Bisexual
    - Transgendered (Male to Female)
    - Transgendered (Female to Male)
    - Intersexed
- Use the Internet to display statistical information concerning sex, gender, and sexual orientation..
  - Compare and contrast the data found.
- Use the Internet to display statistical information concerning the historical legal status of women in the United States.

*Version 1.2: Mar 13, 2010 9:09 am -0600
†http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/3.0/

- Use the Internet to display statistical information concerning the historical legal status of GLBTs in the United States.
- Define and give examples for:
  - Gender identity
  - Sex roles
  - Masculinity
  - Femininity
- Discuss the various forms that inequality based on sex takes around the world.
  - Discuss the status of women in Kuwait and Saudi Arabia.
  - Discuss the status of women in Japan.
  - Discuss the differences among religious strictures, legal doctrine, and cultural practices concerning women in various societies.
- Discuss the various forms that inequality based sexual orientation takes around the world.
  - Discuss the differences among religious strictures, legal doctrine, and cultural practices concerning sexual orientation in various societies.
  - Discuss female genital mutilation.
  - Discuss the status of women in Third World countries.
  - Discuss the rape as an act of war.
- Discuss the women's movement
  - Historically
  - Presently
- Discuss the GLBT movement
  - Historically
  - Presently