

STYLES*

Maha Alkaabi
Haifa Mohammed AL-Marri

This work is produced by The Connexions Project and licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution License †

Abstract

How to use the "Heading 1" style, plus how to change styles for an entire document.

All formatting in Microsoft Word is controlled by styles. A style is a set of formatting instructions. Word applies the formatting instructions when you apply a style. Microsoft Word comes with dozens of built-in styles.

Here are the steps of applying a style:

Step 1: Select the text.

*Version 1.1: Nov 28, 2010 4:25 am US/Central

†<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/3.0/>

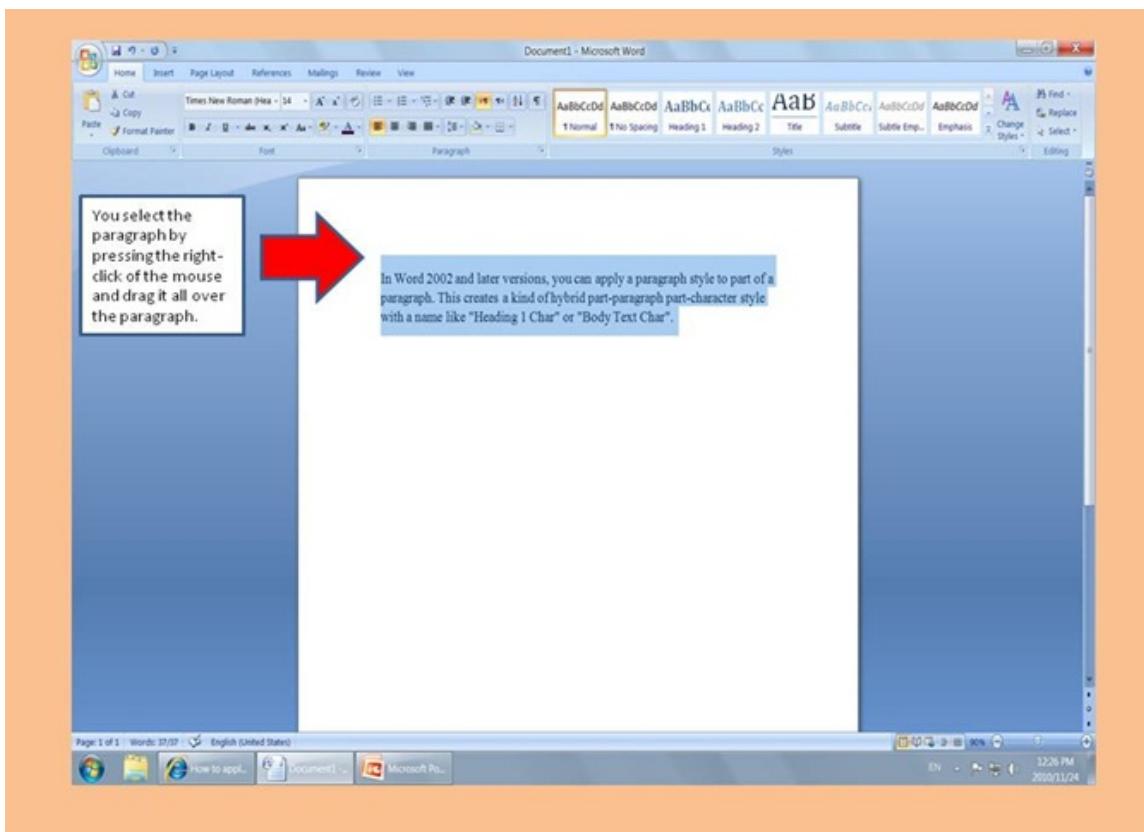

Figure 1

Step 2: Apply the style: using the mouse.

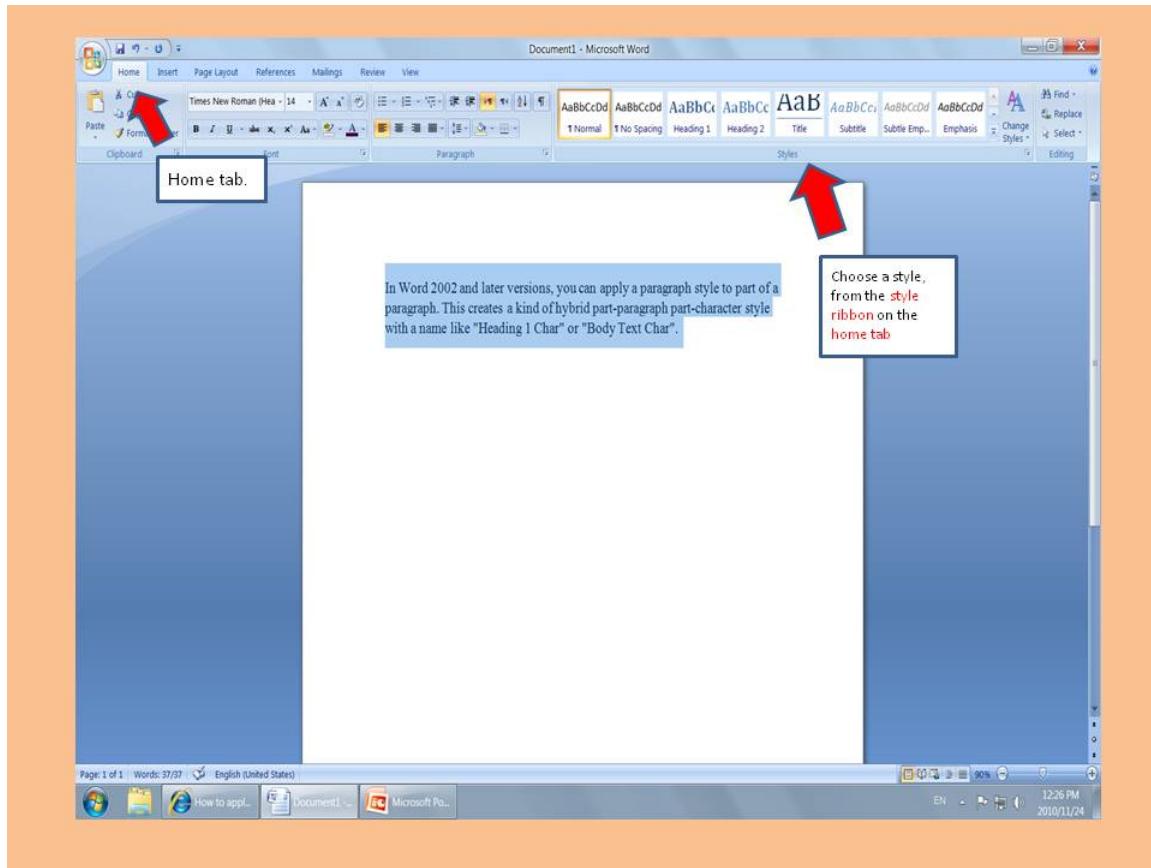

Figure 2

The results when choosing Heading 1:

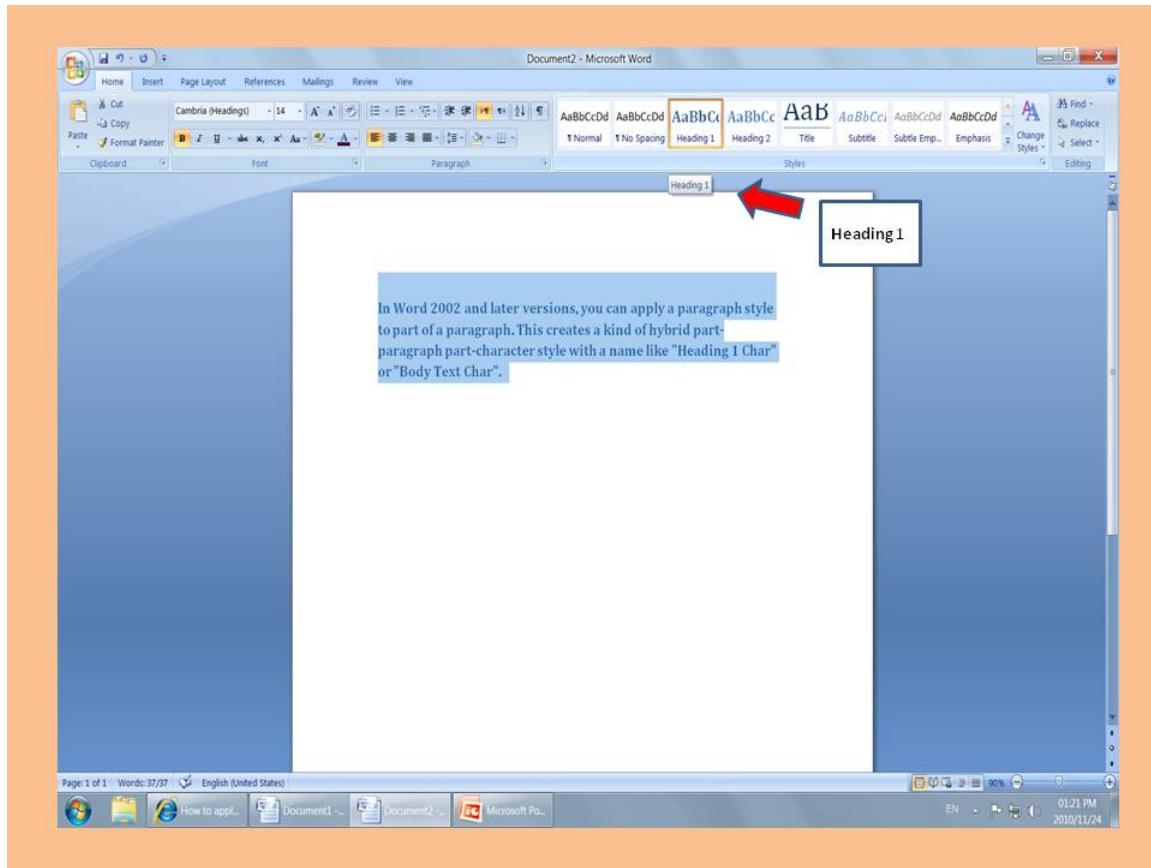

Figure 3