Populate a lens[*]

Connexions

This work is produced by The Connexions Project and licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution License [†]

Abstract

This module explains how to add content to your lens that you wish to highlight.

To add a module or a collection to your lens, you must first navigate to that module or collection[1].

At the top of the module in the Content Action bar[2] is the option `Add to lens`. Hover your mouse over this option and choose "Add to my lens" from the dropdown menu.

Image not finished

Figure 1: Add to lens dropdown

You may add your own tags and description associated with this content. The tags and description will only show up on your lens. Viewers may filter content in your lens by tags.

---

[1]"Finding Content" <http://cnx.org/content/m37430/latest/>

[2]"Viewing Connexions Content": Section Content Action Bar
<http://cnx.org/content/m11837/latest/#contentactionsbarsection>